

Reading together.

Michael Sherbrook, Rector of Wickersley, describes the destruction of Roche Abbey.

And every Person had every thing good cheap;
Some took the Service Books that lied in the Church.

Some took Windowes of the Hay laith (barn) and hid them in their Hay.

Some pulled forth the Iron Hooks out of the walls.

What tearing up of the Lead there was,

and plucking up of Boards,

and the Tombs in the Church all broken.

and all things of Price, spoiled to the uttermost.
