

Wish You Were Here!

Bringing it all together: Teacher notes

This is an opportunity to assess and reinforce the pupils learning.

Remind the pupils what they have done, and then get pupils to present the outcome of their reading, writing and making activities to the whole class. Make sure that the class understands the connection between the activity and the story.

You may wish to use the talking it through WYWH4 key ideas and questions to focus the pupils recall.